

Each one of you has received a special grace, so, like good stewards responsible for all the different graces of God, put yourselves at the service of others. (1 Peter 4:10)

Why does the Catholic Church ask for this form to be completed?

The Catholic Church uses DBS (formerly known as CRB) Disclosures to ensure that those working with vulnerable groups within their parish activities and Religious Orders have been recruited on a fully informed basis.

The Catholic Church is required, under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, to provide you, as the applicant, with the opportunity to voluntarily disclose any convictions, cautions, warnings or bind-overs that are relevant to the role for which you are applying.

There is also an expectation that the Catholic Church check an applicant's previous employment and relevant experience as part of the broader recruitment process.

Who will have access to the completed form and its contents?

Once you have completed, signed and dated the attached form please detach these notes and retain them for your future reference and information.

Place the completed form in a SEALED envelope and pass to your Safeguarding Representative or nominated recruiting person e.g. Care Home Centre Manager.

The completed form and its contents will only be reviewed by those with the entitlement to do so to assess relevancy of the contents e.g. your Safeguarding Office or your employer.

The form and its contents will NOT be viewed or made known to your local Safeguarding Representative

What happens if something is declared?

Any information you supply on the form will not necessarily bar you from undertaking the role for which you are applying/currently working in.

Your relevant Safeguarding contact or employer will contact you to discuss any information you disclose and obtain any further details required to help assess the relevancy of the information to the role for which you are applying.

Should further information be warranted in light of your disclosure of information, your prior consent will be sought BEFORE further information or enquiries are made.

How will decisions be made in light of information disclosed?

Decisions will be made based on full examination of the information disclosed, following further discussion with you regarding the details and circumstances and with possible referral to relevant parties (with your prior consent). You will be kept informed of the decision process and outcome.

Who will be involved in the decision making process?

Your relevant Safeguarding contact or employer will make the decision in consultation, if necessary, with the appropriate Safeguarding Commission.

Where will this form be held; by whom and for how long?

This form will be retained by the authorised Counter-Signatory or employer as per the Safe Storage and Retention Policy requirements.

The form will be retained for 75 years* (or until a new Disclosure is required at which time a new Safeguarding Self Declaration is necessary) within either:-

- a. lockable, non-portable cabinets (with restricted access to keys by authorised and relevant personnel only)
- b. stored electronically on password protected, secure, Safeguarding specific drives accessible only by authorised Safeguarding personnel.

All authorised personnel have completed and signed a Confidentiality Agreement.

*This period was prescribed by The National Catholic Safeguarding Commission (NCSC) in 2009.

CSAS is the national agency for safeguarding within the Catholic Church in England & Wales. The National Safe Recruitment policy has been endorsed by the Bishops Conference and the Conference of Religious. CSAS is the Registered / Umbrella Body of the DBS (formerly known as CRB) for the Catholic Church of England & Wales.
